HIGHLY IMPORTANT FROM BURN-SIDE'S COMMAND—ACTIVE OPERA-TIONS COMMENCED—AN ENGAGE-

NEW YORK, November 19 .- The Tribune has the following highly important special: KNOXVII.E. November 13.—The enemy has the following lighty important special:

KNOXVILE, NOVember 19.—The enemy began skirmishing from their position on the Kingston read at ten this morning. Our advance was composed wholly of infantry and cavairy, and commanded the position under command of General Sander's, and each man command of General Sander's, and each man acted like a veteran. At noon the enemy opened with artillery at short range. Their hattery was protected by a large house. Benjamin's battery was the only one which replied, occupying the chief fortification a mile in front of the town. A desperate charge was made by the enemy about three P. M. Our men were protected by rail barricades on the crest of a bill. General Sanders was severely wounded, and was borne from the field. We visited the position, and fell back a third of a yielded the position, and fell back a third of a niie to a stronger one. We have lost about, one hundred, a quarter of whom were killed. The enemy had completely invested the place but General Burnside will defend it to the last man, and it is believed successfully. The troops are in the best spirits. Our important point is fortified, and confidence prevails that we shall whip the enemy.

A Heruld's special from Knoxville on the 17th, says General Longstreet, after crossing the Tennassee river on Saturday morning, 14th inst., was attacked in the afternoon by General Burnside, who drove the advance guard back to within a mile of the rivers edge by nightfall. Longstreet crossed the remain der of his troops during the night and on Suu day morning advanced in force.

General Burnside finding it impossible, to cope with him with the small force at his disposal, fell back to Lenoir, the rear guard skir-mishing heavily with the enemy through the day. Three heavy charges were made upon our position during Sunday night, but they were repulsed. On Monday morning General Burnside evacuated Lenoir, but owing to the energy with which the rebel pursuit was kept up, determined to give them a decided check, and accordingly came into line of battle at Campbell Station, when a fight cusned lasting from late in the morning until dark. Our first position commanded the road from both sides; the infantry deployed in frontof this, and were soon attacked by the enemy who made several gallant charges and finally succeeded, by outflanking our men driving them to the cover of the batteries which now opened a ter-rific and destructive fire. The rebels retired before it, gave way, and eventually fell back to the river. It was now three P. M. Tho rebels showing a desire to renew the attack, and having brought three batteries to their assistance, General Burnside fell back to a more desirable position, and again gave them buttle. The contest continued, closing at night-fall with our troops in possession of their own ground. The object of the fight having been obtained, and as the detent on of the robels had enabled our trains to get all in advance our troops fell back during the night, and early Tuesday morning reached Knoxville where a great battle is expected to be fought to-morrow. Yesterday the rebel advance guard attacked our outposts upon the London and Clinton road and heavy skirmishing continued all day. This morning the attack was

The rebels finding it impossible to drive our men with infantry, brought saveral guns into position and powred in a flanking fire. In the evening they brought forward a heavy force of infantry once more, and after a brief skirmish charged our position. A terrific hand to hand conflict occurred. Our men tought with the greatest gallantry, but at last were compelled to fall Lack about a third of a mile to a strong line, which they hold towe have to reget the wounding of General Sanders, and Captain Sikes of the cavalry, who commanded the outposts. General Sanders situation is critical.

Lieutenant Colonel Smith of the Twentieth

Michigan was killed at Campbell Station. Our loss in that fight was between two and three hundred. Our loss to-day will not exceed 150. The enemy's loss on Monday, owing to the severe fire of our artillery, could not have been less than 1,000. Their loss today is estimated at 400 or 500.

General Shackleford had a brisk fight on Sunday with the robels on the other side of the Halston, three miles from here. He held them in check and at night they disappeared. Our men are in the best spirits, and perfectly confident of success to-morrow.

TTEMS FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, November 19-The following was received to-day at the Headquarters of CUMBERLAND, Mo., November 18.—To Brigadier General Cullum, Chief of Staff. Brigadier General Cultum, Chief of Stoff—General Averill has arrived at New Creek.

At, or near Covington, he encoontered and dispersed a pertion of Imboden's command on the way to reinforce Echols. He captured twenty-five prisoners. There is not at this time an organized force of rebels within the bounds of the new State of West Virginia.

B. F. Kuttay, Brigadier General.
A special to the Post, dated Washington November 19, says rebel guerrillas are growing very bold in Virginia. They have captured saveral Sutlers, and citizens at Fall's Church, Fairfax Co., but a few miles from Washington. The story that Lee has fallen back from the Rapidan is doubted.

WORTHY of the NINETEENTH CENTURY. DR. E. CONWAY'S LINIMENTUM

RHEUMATISM. In presenting the "Limmentum" to the public of one of the best and most curative medicines of the day, I do not wish to be understood as classing furtities power of performing unboard of others, but I do doing that for all the purposes of a FAMILY LINIMENT, it has no equal. The "Linimentum" has Never been Known to Fail. In any case of Rhoumatism, no matter of how long standing, where the directions were carefully follow-ed, nor, indeed, to the case of any disease for which it is recommended. it is recommended.

In cases of naturalgia, pains in the back, side, and chest, cramps in the atomach, sprains, sprinal irritation and weakness, chrune sores, birms, scalds, frosted feet and lands, toothache, hesdache, ac, it a thing a cheru.

The "Limmentum" is the result of many years persevering experiment, and combines among its more excellented the paramount virtues of

AN EXTRAORDINARY PENETRATIVE POWER,

Which no other Liniment possesses, and which is the secret of the usparallored success which meets the "Maintesstum" wherever it is used.

TRY IT ONCE, AND YOU WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT IT.

WITHOUT IT.
